Set of two houses converted into two type 3 apartments with the possibility of creating four apartments. This property is composed on the ground floor of a type 3 apartment with terrace of approximately 60 m², it is very bright and does not require major work to be habitable. We then find a second type 3 apartment of approximately 55 m² which also does not require major work to be habitable. Then on the 3rd floor, we find two unfinished rooms with a roof terrace. This level could be attached to the apartment on the 2nd or be transformed into an apartment. Finally, for the basement, we see a large garage and a former commercial premises with a storeroom overlooking the street. This level could also house a potential apartment. Property with strong potential, ideal for an investor or large family.
